REVISION SHEET

SUBJECT:ENGLISH

CLASS:IV

Q1: Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions:

We live on the foothills of the Himalayas. On my fifth birthday in February ,daddy bought a tent. Early in the summer, daddy and I set up the tent in the backyard . We planned in it and slept in it. Daddy talked about our upcoming camping trips that we are going to take in a few weeks. Mom read me a picture on camping each night. Everyday, early in the morning , the three of us took hikes on the mountain paths. I started to like the outdoors and learnt about trees ,plants, birds and animals we saw on the hiking routes. These experiences made me feel comfortable with outdoors and also taught me that outdoors could really be fun. I saw as an opportunity to wonder and explore and to challenge myself. In the middle of summer, we started on our first camping trip by the side of the small lake. It was fun to see distant mountain cliffs on the way. At the camping site, there was the lake to play in, rocks to climb and hide around and chances to see the wildlife. I still remember that a grasshopper was just as exciting as a barking deer.
