SEEN COMPREHENSION

Q3. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

At last he reached his Granny's house and said in a great hurry, 'Granny dear, I've promised to get very fat! So please give me lots of corn.' His granny said he was a good boy and let him eat all the corn he wanted to. For seven days he ate, and ate, and ate until he could scarcely waddle. His Granny said he was fat enough now and must go home. But the clever little Lambikin said he would never do. Some animal would be sure to eat him on the way back- he was so plump and tender.

‘I’ll tell you, what you must do,’ said the Lambikin, ‘you must make a little drumikin. Then I can sit inside and roll along nicely, for I’m as tight as a drum myself.’
