Q1 Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow:-

India has been known as the 'Land of Gurus and Gurukuls'. Gurukul is an ancient Indian system of education where the students gained knowledge by living with their teacher as a part of his family. They would leave their homes and come and live at the gurukul to learn the lessons of life from their guru. The students of the gurukul lived a life of learning and obedience. This period of learning lasted about twelve years.

The gurukul is the place where students lived together as equals. The students learned from the guru and in turn offered their services to the ashram. The guru was more than merely a teacher. He was a father, a guide and a role model for all the students. A gurudakshna is the final offering from a student to the guru before leaving the ashram. Life at the gurukul was tough but at the end of their training, the students emerged as responsible individuals who were capable of facing the toughest challenges of life.
