SPECIAL ASSEMBLIES

DPS JAMMU CELEBRATES 150TH BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF MAHATMA GANDHI

Delhi Public School, Jammu organized a special assembly to celebrate 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi.

The assembly began with lighting of lamp and paying floral tributes to Gandhi Ji by Principal Ms. Ruchi Chabra, Headmistress Ms. Meenu Gupta and all coordinators of the school. School Prayer was presented by Suryanshi and Sparsh of Class II, followed by a very melodious patriotic group song "Sona Mera Desh" by the students of class II. Krishna Sharma of class III extolled the great virtues of Bapu Ji in his poem "Aisey they Bapu Gandhi".

Further, Dance Drama "Mohan se Mahatma Tak", giving a glimpses of Gandhi Ji's life and his transformation to the stature of Mahatma was showcased by the students of class II. Jayita Sharma and Harman Singh, Cub Reporters, presented a report on the activities conducted during Swatchta Pakhwada wherein activities such as Shramdaan, Poster Making, Volunteer Services and Awareness Campaign were held in addition to promotion of Hindi and Sanskrit languages. Khushi Soni of class X-C spoke about the importance and dignity of Hindi language while Smridhi Singh of class VIII-H took the programme to another level with the recital of her poem "Jo Beet Gaye So Baat Gayi". The final crescendo was built by the students of class I when they sang the inspirational song "Bande Me Tha Dam", prepared by Mr. Anil Kumar.

Principal, Ms. Ruchi Chabra applauded both students and the teachers for the great assembly. Quoting Gandhi Ji she said, we ourselves need to be the change, if we want to see the change in the world. She urged the students to be that agent of that change. She motivated the students to create a glorious nation and to empower themselves for tomorrow.

Headmistress Ms. Meenu Gupta also appreciated the students and said that celebrating Gandhi Jayanti is not enough, we all need to create Gandhi in ourselves by practicing and abiding by the principles followed by Gandhi Ji.

Felicitation ceremony was held in which students, who won laurels, in different activities held on "Sanskrit Diwas" were given certificates and awards. Dr. Ms.

Seema Sawhney, Sanskrit Language teacher was also felicitated on the occasion.

Vote of thanks was presented by Ms. Bharti Munshi, House Warden, Ganga House.

Hon'ble President, RCT, Sh. M.K Ajatshatru Singh Ji, Hon'ble PVC, Kunwrani Ritu Singh Ji and Hon'ble Director, Sh. S.S Sodhi Ji extended their best wishes on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti.

DPS JAMMU CELEBRATES DIWALI

Delhi Public School, Jammu organized various activities on the occasion of Diwali for students with the purpose to educate them about our culture and tradition and to take a break from hectic schedule to have fun and frolic.

Kids of nursery class decorated the Diyas with mirrors and painted them with the colours of their choice. Students of Pre-Nursery to class II had Diwali fun party with lots of excitement and fervor which not only created a sense of tradition but also learnt the right way to celebrate Diwali.

Hindi elocution was organized for the students of Class I who very effectively spoke about the ill effects of crackers and reinforced on eco-friendly Diwali. "Japanese Activity Comes Home" was organized for the students of class II while a class competition was held on "Colours to Beautify Your Lives" for the students of class III. In these activities students not only indulged themselves in fun task but also developed a sense of eco-friendliness and sustainability in themselves.

Students of class IV went around the school premises in a rally on green Diwali holding placards depicting the causes and consequences of bursting crackers and spreading the message of green Diwali.

Students of class V were given the activity of "Thali Decoration" in which they displayed their creativity and imagination and the outcome was beautiful Pooja Thalīs with different hues and designs.

Exchanging gifts is an age old practice on Diwali. Students of classes VI to VIII made beautiful Diyas under the activity of "Spreading Lights". They gifted them to the orphans which gave them lot of satisfaction as kids are as excited about giving as they are about receiving gifts. Cleanliness and decoration is a much cherished tradition of celebrating Diwali. Students of classes IX to XII decorated their classes using colourful sheets of papers, made Rangoli in front of their classes with vibrant colours.

A Special Assembly was conducted on Diwali on 22nd Oct. 2019 with an aim to make the students aware about pollution and damage caused by bursting crackers on Diwali. At the outset a two minutes silence was observed to pay a tribute to Rudraksh Anand of class VII, who passed away due to illness this month.

The School Choir presented a Sanskrit Prayer which was followed by a speech on Eco-friendly Diwali by Lavanya of IX-A. A short skit on cracker free Diwali was presented by the students of middle wing. The whole assembly was compered by Rutkar Kaul (XI-H) & Gulsmile Kour (X-G).

Headmistress, Ms. Meenu Gupta administered a 'Green Diwali' pledge and urged students to avoid fire works for keeping the surrounding safe and clean.

WORKSHOP ON EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

Ms. Kamini Sawhney and Ms. Shelja Sharma from Delhi Public School Jammu attended a 14 days workshop on Early Childhood Education organized by The Delhi Public School Society, New Delhi held at DPSS-HRD Centre, New Delhi from 3-14 Feb. 2020.

The workshop was inaugurated by Padma Bhushan Sh. V.K Shunglu, Chairman, The DPS Society, New Delhi and Dr. Sharda Manocha, Joint Director, HRDC, The DPS Society.

The early years of a Child are the most significant for laying the foundation for child's later life.

These years are critical for brain development and it is in this period that rapid development in physical, motor, emotional cognitive and language domain takes place. This programme assists the teacher in widening their vision and skills as felicitators of early learners.

The programme had highly informative 42 sessions for the teachers on many areas such as concept, need, significance and evaluation of ECCE. Teachers learned about ECCE pedagogy and curriculum planning. All the domains of child development were discussed. The extremely learned resource persons gave insight about nurturing creativity of children, their rights and how to make education inclusive for children with disabilities

The sessions on child safety and assessment were eye openers. A highly qualified team of professionals like Prof. Adarsh Sharma, Dr. Renu Gulati, Dr. Geeta Gujral, Dr. Kavita Vasudeva and many more conducted the sessions to guide the teachers.

The faculty visited DPS Mathura Road where they learned about various techniques used to teach different concepts, and also gained insight about their curriculum and lesson plans. They had some amazingly innovative sessions on Puppet making and designing and also a session on Delving within with Sh. Arvind Gaur.

The Programme gave them an opportunity to experience India's diversity under one umbrella where they were thrilled to meet their counterparts from all over India, and learned so much about their teaching techniques and experiences.

The ECE programme was quite enriching and gave great direction to teaching. It taught the teachers that learning never stops. They came back better equipped not only to help their early learners but also to empower their colleagues as well as the parents.
