SECTION- A (READING)

Q1.Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow:

Dinosaurs are a group of reptiles that first appeared around 230 million years ago during the Mesozoic Era. They dominated Earth's ecosystems for about 160 million years, from the Triassic through the Jurassic and Cretaceous periods, before most species were wiped out by a mass extinction event about 66 million years ago. Dinosaurs came in many different shapes and sizes, ranging from small, bird-like species to massive, long-necked herbivores and fierce, predatory carnivores like the Tyrannosaurus Rex. There are two main groups of dinosaurs: the Saurischia (lizard-hipped dinosaurs) and the Ornithischia (bird-hipped dinosaurs). Interestingly, despite the name, modern birds evolved from the lizard-hipped group, making them the only surviving lineage of dinosaurs today.

Dinosaurs are known for their adaptations that helped them thrive in different environments. Herbivores had specialized teeth for grinding plants, and many developed defensive features like horns or armor. Carnivores, on the other hand, had sharp teeth and claws to hunt their prey. Some dinosaurs were bipedal, walking on two legs, while others were quadrupedal, using all four legs for locomotion. Fossil evidence has also shown that many dinosaurs had feathers, and some could be warm-blooded, showing more similarities to birds than reptiles.
