Her favourite pastime was standing in the front doorway of her house, watching what was happening in the street outside. There were no playmates of her own age on her street, and this was about all she had to do. But for Valli, standing at the front door was every bit as enjoyable as any of the elaborate games other children played. Watching the street gave her many new unusual experiences.

1. Why did Valli keep on standing at the doorway?
2. How was Valli different from children of her age?

Q3. Read the following dialogue between a mother and her son. Complete the paragraph that follows by filling in the gaps appropriately.

1x2=2

Marie: Did you see my new umbrella? Isn't it fine?

Tony: Yes, it is! Did you buy it from the mall?

Marie asked her son Tony (a) and she wanted to know whether it was a fine one.

Tony agreed and asked his mother (b)
