SECTION A (READING)

Q1. Read the passage and answer the questions that follow:

Nestled in the heart of a quiet village, there was a centuries-old library that held the secrets of history within its walls. The library was known for its vast collection of rare books and manuscripts, some dating back to the 15th century. Villagers often gathered there to read and discuss, treating it as a sanctuary for knowledge.

Among the visitors was Maya, a curious teenager with a love for mystery. One day, while exploring the dusty shelves, she stumbled upon a leather-bound book titled The Key to Hidden Treasures. The book described a secret chamber within the library that was rumored to contain ancient artifacts. Intrigued, Maya delved deeper into the text, piecing together clues scattered throughout its pages.

Finally, after hours of searching, Maya discovered a hidden door behind an old tapestry. Inside, she found not just artifacts but letters and journals from the library's founder. The writings revealed how the library was built to preserve knowledge during times of war. Maya's discovery became the talk of the village, inspiring others to explore history and treasure the library even more.
