SECTION-A(Reading)

Q1. Read the following passage carefully

(3 Marks)

Tom Sawyer lived with his Aunt Polly and his half-brother Sid. Tom was a mischievous boy who often found himself in trouble. One sunny afternoon, Aunt Polly sent Tom to paint the fence as punishment for skipping school. Tom wasn't happy about this chore and wanted to find a way out of it.

As Tom began painting, he had an idea. He pretended to enjoy the task, making it look fun. Soon, his friends Ben and Billy came by. Seeing how much fun Tom seemed to be having, they asked if they could try painting too. Tom agreed, but only if they gave him something in return. By the end of the afternoon, Tom had traded the chance to paint the fence for various treasures, including a shiny apple and a kite. Aunt Polly was pleased with the freshly painted fence, and Tom learned a clever way to turn work into play.
