LITERATURE

- Q4: Read the extract from the chapter 'Haroo the Croc' and answer the questions that follow: (1x3=3marks)

One day, Vikas Babu, the stationmaster of Lakshmikantapur brought home an unusual pet for his children- a baby crocodile. They named him Haroo. Within a few weeks, Haroo became tame and friendly. He did not bare his teeth quite so often. He could see that the family was taking care of him.

Father bought some nylon string, tied it firmly round Haroo's waist and flung him into the railway pond. Mother was delighted. After all, a crocodile's place is in the water. The news soon spread all over the village that Vikas Babu, the Stationmaster, had brought an enormous crocodile from the Sundarbans and kept it in the railway pond so that no one could steal any fish. As a result, no one heard the illegal splash of fishing nets at night anymore. Anglers, who sat on the bank with fishing rods, during the early mornings and the quiet afternoons, disappeared as if by magic!

- i) Which unusual pet was brought by Vikas Babu?

- a) Leopard.
- b) Crocodile.
- c) Lizard.

- ii) From where did the Stationmaster bring the unusual pet?

- a) Thar
- b) Sahara
- c) Sundarbans

- iii) When did the anglers sit on the banks?

- Q5: Answer the following questions: (2x3=6marks)

- a) What news did the March family receive on Christmas Day?
- b) Why is the painter using the different colours to paint in the poem "The Paint Box"?
- c) How did the children know the artist well?

Q5: Read the extract and answer the following questions: (1x3=3 marks)

1. “Counters there are with treasures rare,
Solid things or fragile ware.
All for you is this rich display
Constantly changed by night and day.
Choose for yourself whatever it be,
A daisy field or wind blown tree.
A quiet pool or a singing stream,
A purple dusk or a daisy dream,”

- a) What kind of treasures does the store have?
- b) Which line in these lines means ‘delicate’?
