SESSION 2018-19

MESSAGES.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear All,

One thing that is most amazing about Time is that it passes by so quickly, like clouds sailing with the wind, and even before you begin to realize, you find yourself ashore on the bank of life with myriads of memories trailing behind and with zillions of possibilities staring ahead. The evergrowing process of metamorphic transformation is best observed in schools where every moment there is explosion of knowledge and spurring of dreams, where abilities are explored and subtly chiselled to perfection. DPS Jammu adrift on the time boat, spanning for over 20 years now, has witnessed unparalleled growth in all segments, which is more than just heartening to note: Dreams coming to reality, newer capabilities discovered, fresh opportunities found, newer challenges faced, important life-skills learnt and practised, joys of learning experienced, elation at achievements - big, small, collective and single felt, happiness of sharing, donating and serving experienced, thrill of new found roles and responsibilities cherished... And, amidst all of this, there is unbounding pleasure of rolling out of the 5th Edition of Kaiti which is 'for the children, by the children and of the children'. Peeping out through rich and varied, amateur and ripened, creative and artistic expressions are the moments in time and timelessness, which as they unfold, leave a stony trail of memories behind them - both inspiring and satisfying.

I congratulate the Editorial Team 2018-19 for treating us to varied fruits of Time and making the experience a part of our treasured memory.

Happy Reading!

Best Wishes

Ruchi Chabra

Principal

DY. HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE

Message

"Somewhere, something incredible is waiting to be known"—Carl Sagan

This amazing quote holds so much of relevance for all us: children, parents and teachers.

Learning at our school is based on the fundamental principles of life; teaching the children to be courageous, confident, disciplined, responsible and loyal. We aim at providing a foundation for a life time of learning that is fun too.

The school magazine, Kriti, plays an important role in making our students aware of their talents which will help them in all their future endeavours by boosting their confidence.

I extend my best wishes and hope we keep on encouraging and motivating the students.

CHEIF-COORDINATOR'S
MESSAGE

I am happy to learn that the school is bringing out its magazine for the session 2018-19.

A school magazine helps record the curricular and extra curricular journey of the school and provides an opportunity to the students to showcase their talent and explore their creative potential. Alongside academic and curricular inputs, co-curricular and extra curricular activities helps shape the overall personality of the child.

I extend my greetings and best wishes to the students and teachers of DPS Jammu and wish their endeavours my very best.

HEAD GIRL AND BOY'S
MESSAGE

Dear all,

'Tasini' and 'kriti' are two editorial board and we take great pride and also a sense of achievement with the publication of the magazines. for they're named after two of the brightest gems of our school and this truly is a motivation for all us students. Further the magazine itself is a voice of all the talented and genius students, as it providing them a platform to display their talent.

Above every thing else, 'Tasini' and 'kriti' provide us students with a sense of appreciation of their efforts, and handwork. In totality, we're grateful to the school for giving us the opportunity to represent ourselves through 'Tasini' and 'kriti'.

Head Girl
Gunya Sharma

Head boy
Iqbal . S. Goyal.

Dear All,

It has been an amazing journey. The whole rollercoaster ride of selecting the covers of the magazine to writing this final message. It has taught the entire editorial board so many lessons - patience, determination, perseverance and teamwork.

Through the entire course of the compilation of school magazines, we have been through so many ups and downs but with our determination and the never ending support, we ever able to cruise through all obstacles so easily.

"When the forests turn to ash, when the water in the ocean dries up, when the birds lose their melody and the sun doesn't set down its horizon,

that is when we'll forget each other..."

These lines define the emotions that we have with the magazine. Whatever that worked upon the poems, the laughter and the smiles - they will all forever be etched as unreasonable lines in all affair ~~forever~~ hearts. The school library will gaze and smile knowing that this is the place where we all spent the best times of our life.

In the end, we can proudly, zealously, and happily "Yes it was all worth it." And it fills our heart with a happy, kind of sadness on the epilogue of our book - the book of our Mark which will remain forever in our hearts. The book of Kriti, Tarini and Tharna.

Signing off,

~~Kamlesh~~

SCHOOL [POEM]

Do you know where knowledge is pooled?

So come, let's go to school!

Maths teaches our brain,

But when you think and think answers will rain!

Different teachers take different roads,

Some children get the best.

Our art teacher helps us to mould clay,

After that we play and play

Where knowledge is pooled,

This is my school!

Salute to Indian Soldiers...

Salute to the Indian Soldiers,

who can't break their orders,

Because of them we are alive,

As honey is safe behind the knife.

Salute to the Indian Soldiers.

Why their favourite colour is red?

Because they never hesitate to shed their Blood.

Salute to the Indian Soldiers

make up all our give respect

As we want, As we expect

Salute to the Indian Soldiers,

I'll give salute again & again

Because, few soldiers I'm no complain

Try Try Again

It's a lesson you should heed

If at first you don't succeed

Try, Try again

Then your courage should appear, for if you will persevere

You will conquer, never fear

Try, Try again,

Once or twice, though you should fail, if you would at last prevail

Try, Try again.

If you find that hard,

Time will bring you your reward

Try, Try Again

— Manya Dikwal

You let yourself drown

You feel like it's not worth it

You feel like just leave it

Your parents they're against you

Your friends they're against you

You're alone in this world,

Alone with your curse,

Nothing's going right for you,

You turn to the left, this path isn't right for you

Injection, pills, powder, poison,

You're dying a thousand times before you die,

Noose, gun, knife, blood

Only options you can buy.

You don't wanna live, you don't wanna try, All that is left is wet eyes and lips dry.

Isolation, its your only salvation

Your dream, your passion

It's crashing, its crashing

You were the pillar of my life and you simply crashed it.

Can't stop it, its too late,

its may day, its may day

But more like a D-Day.

You can't take it anymore.

You're choking on the inside.

You're dying on the outside.

You're dead from the inside.

And all that it left is dry lips and wet eyes.

Noose, gun, knife, blood.

One of these options you will buy.

You are crashing your plane.

You are ending your life.

Did you not realize,

that on your head is not a curse
but a crown?

You let yourself down!

You let yourself down.

THAT DARK!

Sweet dreams were broken

When I looked upon the sky

Hateful words spoken

I thought to say my good byes now

Down the hole I went

Where dark was the only light

The fear I resent

The bright day barely in sight.....

Deep in my sad mind

Where I laid down on the grass

Where I try to find

Whatever can truly last.....

I look to the sky when darkening. Every cloud come in the rain starts to fly down upon my weathered skin.....

Then I close my eyes and let the dark enclose me
Now there's softened skies
as I die by that dark from true...!!

DON'T QUIT.

When the things go wrong

As they sometimes will

When the road you are treading seems all uphill.

When the funds are low and the debts are high.

And you want to smile

but you have to sigh.

When fate is pushing you down a bit but, if you must

but don't you QUIT!

GIRL! GIRL! GIRL!

Every woman's slave want still
On knowing that I was a girl
Everybody's dream for a fame
Why do I become... a mother's blame?

Two separate world's union

Pure love was the reason

You called me yours

That floated on the top... o-o

Shh, they want a boy not a girl

Boy is treated as diamond & pearl

I feel sorry, my life is most inside

And then my mum said
Sweetheart, the world is sick & unsafe outside!

THE MYSTERIOUS ISLAND

There was an Island.

Full of thick trees

The night was dark with cold breeze

And the tides were splashing on the rocks.

I and my friend, we both were frightened

Sometimes we saw some wild House and sometimes flying Owl

I can't explain what the moment was.

Even can't show we crossed.

But suddenly everything went dark

My mother woke me up and said

"Let's go for a walk."

Love Is Blind

Love! Love! Love,

Oh! My love

Where are you,

I miss you too.

Love is like the flower

Which blooms with the rain of love.

The person who loves person

He feels secured in his arms cover.

Love is like a drug,

Through which the love is addicted.

And only for the person he loves

His eyes are veiled.

Poem:- Sweet Dreams

A boy wishes to scare his sister, but she outwitted her. Read how he himself becomes a victim of his prank.

It has always been the wish of mine,
(Or should I say dream)

To scare my sister half to death
And hear piercing screams.

That's why I squeaked four bugs until
They all were dead.

Then took them to my sister's room and put her in bed.

After we had said goodnight

My heart began to pound

I waited and waited, but she never made a sound

And then I got so very tired,

I couldn't stay awake

I climbed into my own warm bed and sneezed - there was a snake!

It wiggled, and I leaped and fell

And bruised my bottom half

Then I heard an awful sound -

It was my sister's laugh

MOUSE AND MOLE

There was a tree

Planted in my house

Under which lived

A fat round mouse

He runs so fast

And hides in the hole

He has a brother

Whose name is mole

They both are naughty

And spoil green grass

We can't catch them

Because they are so fast

So we set up a trap — AASIM MIR

Man should be like trees

It is not growing like a tree.

In bulk, both make Man better be;

Or standing as an oak, three hundred years,

To fall a log at last, dry, bald and sore;

A lily of a day

Is fairer far in May?

Although it fall and die that night -

It was the plant and flower of light.

In small proportions we just beauties see;

And in short measures life may best be.

Life.

Life is an opportunity, benefit from it.

Life is beauty, admire it.

Life is a dream, realize it.

Life is a challenge, meet it.

Life is a duty, complete it.

Life is a game, play it.

Life is a promise, fulfill it.

Life is sorrow, overcome it.

Life is a song, sing it.

Life is a struggle, accept it.

Life is a tragedy, confront it.

Life is an adventure, dare it.

Life is luck, make it.

CREATIVITY

Creativity is the imagination

I am challenging everyone of you to do some creative thinking with Creativity the word that you

Come on & connect with your creative to use creative writing

It is the building in our mind
we can all learn creative writing starting with one a single line.

If you accept my challenge
maybe you could write two
If you allow your creativity

Maybe then you could then write

Maybe you could write a poem

NEWSPAPERS

The first printed newspaper of India was in English, and was called Hicky's Bengal Gazette. It was edited and published by James Augustus Hicky, an ex-employee of the East India Company. The first issue of this newspaper came out in 1780 and carried only classified advertisement on its front page. It was a weekly newspaper and it generally dealt with the arrival and departure of Europeans, timings of steamers, fashionable news from London, Paris and Vienna and personal news.

It attended to the needs of the small European community of Calcutta. Many other Anglo-Indian newspapers emerged based on Kicky's pattern such that John Bull, Calcutta Journal and Bengal Harbans. In the year 1781, Kicky's Bengal Gazette was forced to close down after Kicky published a scandalous story about Warren Hastings the then Governor-General and his wife.

UNION AS STRENGTH

Union is strength is an proverb, which simply means that by uniting we can achieve strength. The mother nature teaches this simple truth in its own way

If we go to a forest of Redwood trees we will find that these trees are the tallest trees available on earth. Some of these trees survive for hundreds of years, withstanding the devastating earthquakes, massive storms and blizzards. Although these trees are so large and have such a longer life span, but their roots do not grow deep enough something so, that kids and very old people do not have to beg for fundamental needs like food, water, shelter and medical facilities.

With Love to My DAD

If I could have one lifetime wish

A dream that would come true

I'd pray to God with all my heart,

For Yesterday I You

In life I loved you dearly,

In death I love you still.

In my heart you hold a place,

No one else can fill.

You left behind my broken heart

And happy memories too

But I never wanted memories "DAD"

I only wanted You: — Rakini Gupta

THE SMILING ROSES? HOLSMILE

If girls ~~show~~ in Heaven, man,
Please choose some special ones for me
Put them in my rooms and,
say me that they were just made for me.
My God, Tell my mom I love her so much. ^{Dear}
Those girls when smiling, would make your presence filled, and
Your remembrance would be killed
When I look at them.
They were just like you
Hey! Mom where have you gone!!!

Life is a ladder ...

Life is queer with its twists & turns
As everyone of us sometimes learns
And many a failure turns about,
When we might have won had we Stuck it out.

Don't give up though the pace seems
Slow

You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to faint & faltering man,
After the struggle has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup

And we danced too late when the night slipped down.

How close we were to the garden now.

Success is failure turned inside out

The silver tint of clouds of doubt

And you never can tell how slow you are

It may be worse when it seems to far

So stick to the fight when you're wandering

It never - things seem worst just you must not quit now - XI B
